White Ironstone: A Collector's Guide. This spiral-bound book is a 2005 reprint of Jean Wetherbee's last book published in 1996 by Antique Trader Books. It traces the history of ironstone manufacture and reveals the story of the large North American ceramics trade. Emphasis is on the gleaming white earthenware shapes produced during the middle and late 19th century by Staffordshire potters. Price: $35

The Illustrated Guide of White Ironstone China from A-Z. This spiral-bound, 358-page book adds to the vast material Jean Wetherbee compiled in her last book, White Ironstone, A Collector's Guide. It is a comprehensive, illustrated, alphabetical list of known 19th century white ironstone shapes and focuses on dinner, tea, and toilet service items. Publisher: White Ironstone China Association, 2013. Price: $50

The Cherished Relish. This comprehensive book contains over 50 pages with approximately 375 white ironstone relish dishes and their marks. Included are seven color pages of relish dishes presented by decade and several indices to search by shape name or maker. Publisher: White Ironstone China Association, 2023. Price: $25
